

DRESSAGE/HARNESS CLINIC WITH DUTCH TRAINERS JENNY VEENSTRA AND MARC van VLASSELAER

Last year Jenny gave several successful dressage clinics in Australia and New Zealand and is now back by popular demand!

Jenny Veenstra is a professional dressage rider and trainer of sporthorses. She has worked with horses all over the world and trained several horses to the highest levels in dressage.

Coming from a well-known family of breeders of Friesians she has a lot of experience with Friesian horses and is a KFPS judge. She is a renowned dressage instructor and gives clinics in Holland and abroad. She was asked to teach at the famous Academy Bartels in Holland, home of her trainer, Tineke Bartels, a formal Olympic medallist and mother of Inke Schellekens, member of the Dutch Olympic Team.

Jenny is known for her gentle approach towards the horses and her goal is to train a horse to a high level without force. Her teaching style is no-nonsense with a lot of humour.
